Wow. Girlz with a Z! An exceptional performance by the 7 cast members. Brilliantly written with a good balance of humour amongst the serious issues portrayed. The choreography and dancing is of a high standard by all Girlz. The songs are catchy with the solos passionately sung from the heart. Adam's 'Girl From The Bar' moved me to tears. His strong performance amongst the girls supported the story brilliantly. And let's not forget Mr Cashman! Bravo. You all deserve the success that I'm sure will be heading your way. Next stop.....the West End!!

A must see!! The Girlz are so talented in singing and dancing, the choreography and energy was fantastic and the story draws you in. Loved the feisty attitude in the song BABY especially and every time the 5 girls were on stage it was captivating. Would love to see more songs and performances from this multi talented group. Wow, wow, wow! What a professional performance. The singing and dancing was top notch. The songs were very catchy (I could easily see them do well if released). The story tackled many issues and I left feeling great with the tunes still in my head. You must try to see this show at the fringe.

I left the theatre and the first thing I said was 'Girlz forever, girls until the day I die!!' It was a banger show condensed into a 60 minute emotional rollercoaster for the Fringe. I'm not usually the biggest fan of when shows have some like Giga emotional moments or serious sitches but this show defied that for me. I was hooked the whole way through and was constantly impressed by the calibre of performance from the Girlz (and dudes).

100/100 will recommend to everyone I meet.

Very talented cast portraying the journey of the beginning of a girl band. Shining light on important issues- within the narrative. Highly recommend this new musical an hour of being drawn into their stories and show stopping performances. Must watch this festival season.

This is a great show!!! To see a musical that feels so big in a fringe venue like this is really something. You can feel the heart in this show and in this cast. Great performances, great songs, great message. Exactly the kind of show I love seeing at Fringe cuz you can feel it work in the moment but also know that it is going to grow!! Check it out!

Wow! This is such a great show. The performances are all top notch, the dialogue is witty, the songs are catchy and others are poignant. It made us laugh, sing along but also brought a tear to our eyes. This thoroughly deserves a West End run. We'd be first in the queue to see the full version! Congratulations to the whole cast.

You need to see this show.

Easily one of my top picks at the Fringe this year. Great performances, incredibly catchy songs and some truly powerful emotional moments. I am desperate to see the full version, as it being condensed in 1 hour does make the ending seem abrupt. But while it would benefit from additional material, I wouldn't change anything about what is already there. It's brilliant.

Girlz delivered everything and more of what you might want from a brand new musical at the Fringe! It has such potential for greatness and success after the festival, so I recommend everyone to catch it now to be able to say they were there before it became big! The cast are what carry the show! No need for elaborate sets, lighting or costume because the acting and vocals transport you to the world of a girl group (the highs and the lows). A big shout out to Daniella Mirels who carried the hard emotional storytelling of the piece, with outstanding vocals and acting. The rest of the company are a powerhouse, and definitely actors the industry needs to watch out for!!!

Ps. We definitely need a cast recording ASAP

Girlz is a must-see show with youthful energy and great songs delivered with passion. The talented cast of seven performers brings a palpable enthusiasm to the stage, making for an electrifying performance with plenty of emotion, love, laughs and tears. *****

The only drawback is the Greenside venue's seating, which is a bit cramped and uncomfortable for large people!

We loved this. Strong voices and choreography. Catchy (or soulful) music. Great cast. One of our Fringe favorites. We would have stayed for more! The only downside is that George St is a long walk, otherwise this would have sold out immediately.

I tagged along with a pal to see this show and honestly absolutely loved it. This show deserves to have a good run.

The girls were all fantastic and the story of a girl band's rise to fame with different facing issues amongst the band and handling it together. Even though the show only one hour has potential for more adding to the storyline.

Pop songs were catchy and fun, but the ballad songs were really fantastic and worked their magic for the heartfelt hit within that moment of the storyline.

Go see Girlz and support this show, it was fantastic and the cast were all great and so lovely. Highly recommend it!

Best musical I have seen in 10 years of fringe-going. Great songs, great performances, extremely tight production to pack so much into just an hour. Highly recommend - and ticket price compared to many other shows is a bargain. A shedload of bang for your buck!

Totally fantastic. I can't rave about it enough. If you love Mean Girls, Legally Blonde, Heathers you will love it. I would mention Six but Girlz actually has a storyline 😊. The 5 leads are all brilliant. They deserve to sell out, take a chance you won't regret it.

Wow Wow Wow!!! 5* truly isn't enough for this amazing show, just incredible!! The performers deliver powerhouse vocals, incredible acting and a gripping storyline throughout. Not only is this show composed of glitzy pop numbers (for which the choreography and vocals are seriously next level), it also dives into real, raw issues - mental health, addiction and the pressures of fame.

Girlz the Musical was born to be on the West End!

The characters felt so real and I was rooting so strongly for them. A great script for an excellent cast, centring the story of five ambitious young women. Great songs, catchy pop and acoustic stuff too. And I really wanted to boo at the villain, he is loathsome.
